If I Ever Get Out of Here
by Eric Gansworth

Think about the many different "groups" you belong to (ethnicity, race, religion, class, gender, age, ability, etc.). Choose one you are comfortable sharing and write down one way that part of your identity has shaped your life or perspective.

Write down one or two of your individual qualities that are important to you and who you are.

When Dimple Met Rushi
by Sandhya Menon

The author expresses the desire to show a different experience than the common stereotypes of her culture.

Write down one or two stereotypes you have heard or seen about a group that you belong to.

Where do you think stereotypes come from?

How might we work to change stereotypes to truly honor and celebrate differences?
